

Member advice fee form

About this form

You can use this form to authorise the deduction of a Member Advice Fee from your ING Living Super account ('account') to pay for financial advice in relation to your superannuation. The fees can only be paid if you have an adviser authorised on your account. You can authorise an adviser by completing the Dealer Group/ Adviser Authorisation Form. Once received, please allow 2-3 business days for processing of the form. The fees will not take effect until processing has occurred. Payments to Dealer Groups will occur after month end processing has completed. To cancel an existing Member Advice Fee please call us.

Step 4: Customer declaration

I declare that:

- I agree to any amount/s specified in section 3 being deducted from my ING Living Super account and paid to the Dealer Group named in section 2.
- If the nominated Adviser moves to another Dealer Group they may request, with the authorisation of the original Dealer Group, to continue to receive any Member Advice Fee. The Trustee will only pay the Member Advice Fee to the new Dealer Group on receipt of a release letter from the original Dealer Group authorising the transfer.
- If setting up a Member Advice Fee in the middle of the month, I agree to the first deduction being pro-rated by the remaining days in the month.
- I confirm that these amounts relate to financial advice provided to me in relation to my superannuation.
- If I have an existing Member Advice Fee arrangement in place, any additional forms received will replace and revoke any existing arrangements.
- I acknowledge that the one-off and on-going Member Advice Fee will be deducted from the Cash Hub of my Living Super account on the last day of the month. The contribution, rollover and share trading Member Advice Fees will be deducted from my account at the time of the transaction being processed.
- I acknowledge that the one-off and on-going Member Advice Fee will be deducted from my super account if one exists, if not then my TTR or pension account. The contribution, rollover and share trading Member Advice Fees will be deducted from the account the transaction has occurred on.
- I acknowledge that if I nominate an ongoing Member Advice Fee as a percentage, this is calculated based on the total combined balance of my super and/ or TTR or pension account/s.
- I acknowledge that I am responsible for ensuring that there are sufficient funds in the Cash Hub to enable the Member Advice Fee to be deducted. Fees will be deducted from the Cash Hub and if there are insufficient funds the Cash Hub top up process as detailed in the Living Super Product Guide will apply.
- I acknowledge that the Trustee is not responsible for the payment of the Member Advice Fee when it is unable to be deducted from my account.
- I acknowledge that the Trustee may, in its sole discretion, refuse a request to deduct the Member Advice Fee.
